

Rise, created by Barclays is committed to challenging the status quo. We're challenging inequities affecting women in tech through mentoring initiatives like:

- Our FinTech Friday events
- A partnership with AccelerateHER

We're challenging inequities by improving access to networks through our Female Founders First programme by Barclays and Techstars.

We're challenging the inequities by widening access to funding with:

- The Female Innovators Labs by Barclays and Anthemis
- A partnership with Angel Academe

We're inspiring women through content and learning opportunities including:

- Events with the award-winning social enterprise STEMettes
- Regular articles, interviews and podcasts with female founders
- A joint effort with Adobe to unleash the creativity of female leaders
